IanNally

IanNally.com
IanNally@gmail.com
909.935.7271

Objective

To play a part in the changing landscape of Los Angeles, by gaining the experience necessary to become a licensed architect at a firm that offers diverse design opportunities.

Education

University of Southern California — Bachelor of Architecture — Expected Graduation, May 2016

Damien High School, La Verne, CA — Class of 2011

Experience

Designer / Revit Manager — Sky Zone Franchise Group — Summer 2013 to Present

- Planned and detailed park interiors internationally, paying special attention to space plan efficiency and optimization of open space
- Ensured compliance with brand standards
- Optimized building occupancy for maximum franchise owner profit
- Maintained consistent communication with franchise parters to ensure design excellence within tight budgets

Academic Recruiter — Damien High School — 2010 to Present

- Designed and produced marketing materials
- Travelled to Southern California middle schools to give presentations to students and parents

Activities

Alpha Rho Chi, National Professional Architecture Fraternity — Fall 2011 to Present

- President, Recruitment Chair, Image Chair, Professional Chair, Education Chair, Historian, Webmaster, Library Manager, National Representative

USC Troy Camp — Fall 2013 to Present

- Counselor, Tutor, and Mentor to Los Angeles Youth, Ages 10-12

USC Triathlon Team — Fall 2013 to Present

- Merchandise Chair; Designed and processed uniform and equipment orders for over 150 members

Skills

Rhino3D, AutoCad, Revit, Adobe Illustrator, Lightroom, InDesign, Keynote, Model Manufacturing, 3D Printing

Recognition

- USC Presidential Scholarship
- George Whitten Award for Academic Achievement
- USC Dean's List
- Tau Sigma Delta Honors Society

Interests

Southern California Modernism, Architectural Photography, Typography, Furniture Design, Graphic Design, Sustainability